How much more can you save in a PPP®? Potentially $1,275,680...

Case Study

Let's consider a 50-year-old business owner with 20 years of past services and average historical T4 income of $100,000/year, who expects to continue to work for the next 20 years earning a minimum $140,000 of T4 income. As per the graph to the right, under a PPP®, this business owner will be retiring with an extra $1,275,680 in their retirement fund, compared to what would have been accumulated in their RRSPs alone.

How is this gap achieved?

Regardless of your age, your annual RRSP contribution limit remains constant each year. By contrast, as you get older, your annual PPP® contribution limits grow and exceed those under RRSP rules. The table illustrates extra contribution allowed in the PPP® at different ages. (You can set up your PPP® as late as age 71.)

And there is more...

Additional annual contributions explain a large part of the extra savings created by the PPP®, but is only one of many additional factors that generate this wealth increase. Other pension-specific tax-deductions include: past service buy-back, special payments, fee deductibility, terminal funding, etc. as illustrated in the info graphic on the right.
